ALL AROUND THE PRESS

One partner, Full-Service!

ALL AROUND THE PRESS - FULLY INTEGRATED The key advantage for our customers in working with a single supplier is our vast know-how when integrating all peripheral technologies into the production process to guarantee competitiveness and performance.

Green line

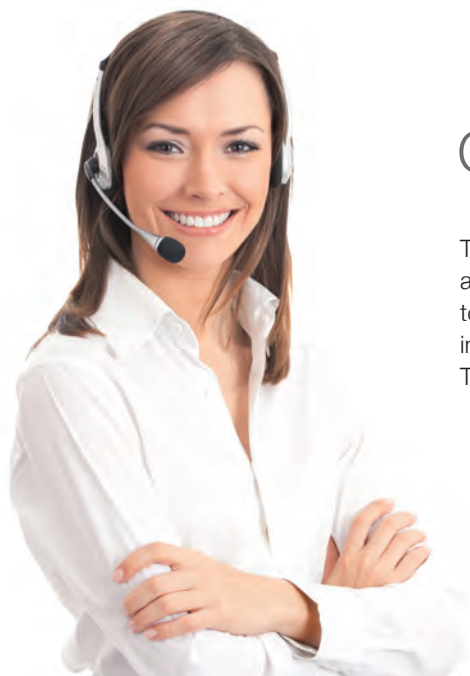

Concentrates the innovative and leading machinery for the sheet metal working industry. The GREEN LINE provides solutions for complete automation of the sheet metal working process.

Green Line automation

For the GREEN LINE, automation means performance of innovative solutions. Each phase of the project is intricately studied and benchmarked from its design through its execution. An interlatching architecture coordinates highly advanced applications, the machine settings centrally optimised.

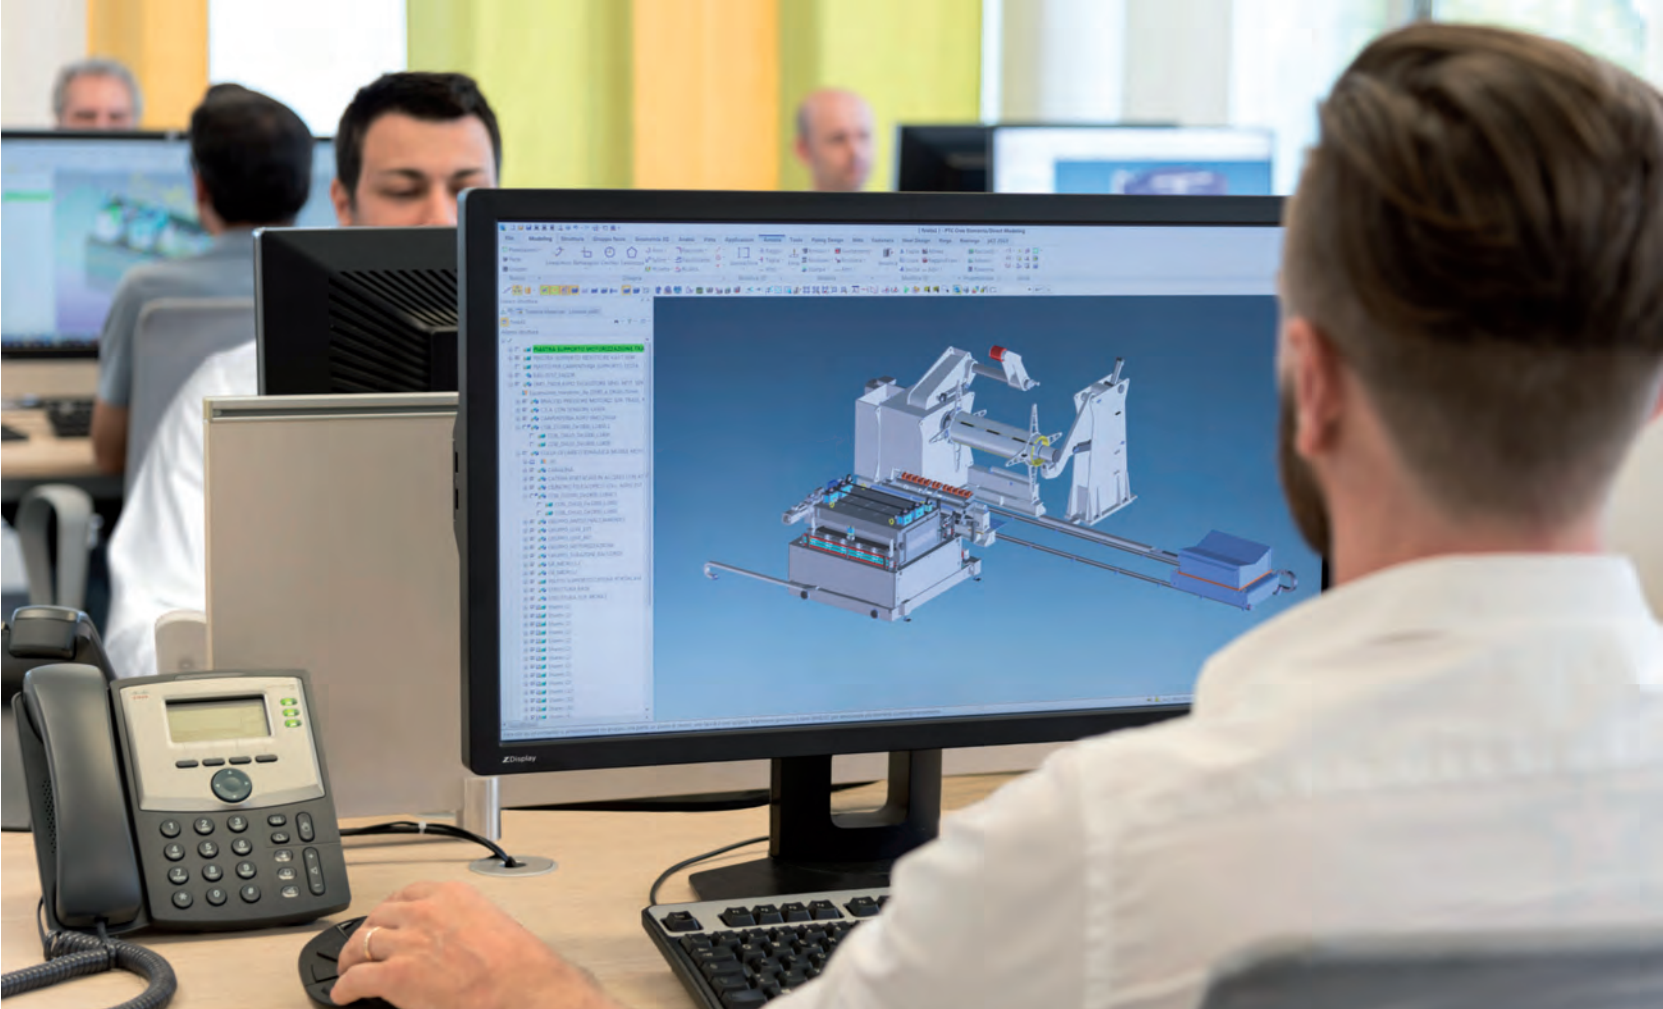

Millutensil increased its presence around the world, with an active sales network in 35 countries throughout 5 continents

Customer service and training

To work closely with our customers, a team of technicians is dedicated to each project's development, installation, and after-sales service. Teleservices and web conferencing facilitate communication and after-sales support with our customer in real time. For us, after-sales service is our stamp guaranteeing quality and reliability for our customers.

Universal quality guaranteed

Millutensil is recognised worldwide as a provider of first-rate solutions. The distinction lies in detail. Embarking from design, every project by MILLUTENSIL revolves around an acute level of quality.
